MASSACRES

Of the Armenians in Asiatic Turkey Have Been Renewed With Vigor

SINCE BULGARIA ENTERED WAR

United States Receives No Answer From Turkey

WARNING GIVEN OTTOMANS

That Sympathy of American People Would Be Alienated If Atrocities Did Not Cease—Condition of Refugees Being Alleviated by Distribution of Private Subscriptions.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Oct. 12.—Armenian massacres in Asiatic Turkey have been renewed with vigor since Bulgaria's entrance into the war, as Turkey's ally. This information reached the state department today from Ambassador Morgenthau, who stated that the majority of the Armenians in Asiatic Turkey had been killed.

Although representations were made by this government some time ago warning Turkey that further atrocities against the Armenians would alienate the sympathies of the American people no answer has been received.

Earlier representations were met with two concessions, promising that those Armenians who wished to leave the country would be permitted to do so unharmed and further that protestant Armenians would be spared information reaching this country, however, indicated that these conditions have not been strictly adhered to. From one quarter it was asserted that "they were resented the next day."

Although $100,000 from private subscription has been placed at Ambassador Morgenthau's disposal for distribution among the Armenian refugees now banished to desert towns, no arrangements have been made for bringing Armenians to this country as originally planned, except where friends or relatives send for them. Those Armenians who were spared are now gathered in the country between the Tigris and Euphrates rivers.

State Guard At Election In South Carolina.

Charleston, S. C., Oct. 12.—Four companies of the national guard of South Carolina and three divisions of the naval militia were held in their armories here today to be ready to supersede the local police should the latter in the opinion of Sheriff J. E. Martin, fail to preserve order at the polls during a municipal primary election. The sheriff also had sworn in some 50 special deputies for similar duty. There was nothing early today, however, to indicate possible disturbances.

Today's Democratic primaries, nomination in which is regarded as equivalent to election, was preceded by a bitter political fight between local factions. Governor Manning gave the order for the troops yesterday and also authorized the swearing in of special deputies after Sheriff Martin had declared in affidavits that trouble was imminent.

Enormous Strain on Russia, In Men and Money, Now Is Being Felt Most Keenly

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, Oct. 12.—The enormous drain on Russia's supply of men and the financial strain upon the country are emphasized by the Times' Russian correspondent in a review of the situation in the east. Russia, he says, never expected the war to last longer than six months. She had sufficient money, an abundance of shells and a superfluity of men for such a war, but was not prepared for so prolonged, and strenuous a struggle.

"She strove hard," the correspondent declares, "to meet the demands for ammunition, but she possesses neither the industrial background, the skilled hands nor the industrial mobility to support her army adequately. She must depend on outside help and has to buy from Japan, the United States and elsewhere. Thus the problem becomes largely financial."

"It should be remembered that the Russian ruble has depreciated 40 per cent; that Russia raises nothing by the sale of spirits and scarcely anything by her tariff on imports and she has also greater difficulty in borrowing in America."

Washington, Oct. 11.—Secretary Daniels' new naval advisory board has held its first meeting and is now ready to settle down to work. The first problem that will receive the board's serious consideration will be that of developing satisfactory gasoline or oil engines for aeroplanes and submarines. Details of all experiments made and pending by department engineers in this line already have been prepared for submission to the board, with full statements of what must be accomplished and the difficulties encountered.

CRUSHING OF BULGARIA IS GREECE'S AIM

FORMER PREMIER TELLS CHAMBER THAT HELLENISM WOULD BE VANQUISHED

In Event of Bulgarian Triumph—Present Premier Announces "Armed Neutrality" Policy.

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, Oct. 12.—The Greek chamber was informed by Prime Minister Zaimis at a meeting yesterday that in order to better assure the vital interests of Greece, her neutrality "will for the present be armed," says a Reuter dispatch from Athens.

The premier added that the future course of the ministry will be adapted to meet events as they occur, and expressed the belief that the government's course has the support of the people.

In reply, former premier Venizelos said: "No one would wish to create international difficulties in the country in view of the present extremely critical situation. The chamber will give its support to the government as long as the government's policy does not alter the principles of my policy which the chamber already has given its vote. Even if there existed no treaty with Serbia, our interest would oblige us to depart from it."

to hold her own. Soldiers' wages and army bills are paid with admirable punctuality and there is a feeling that all supplies will be obtained easily if once the Dardanelles are taken. But those who know the true inwardness of the situation, know how much financial difficulty stands in the way of Russia making up lost ground and entering again upon a vigorous offensive."

Taking up Russia's enormous losses in men, the correspondent says they undoubtedly are much greater than generally supposed. No lists are published of losses in the ranks and it is difficult to gauge the extent of daily casualties.

"There was dreadful carnage in the Russo-Japanese war," the writer declares, "but everything in this war has been on a scale five times as large. Enormous numbers of young men who never expected to serve, and whose parents believed they were immune, now are being trained. The act of calling them out synchronizes with Emperor Nicholas' assumption of command, and was in a way a further example of Russia's wholeheartedness and determination to cast everything on the altar of the east."

FIRST MEETING OF THE NAVAL ADVISORY BOARD.

This photograph shows the first meeting of the Naval Advisory Board at Washington, Wednesday, October 6.

The problem of defense against torpedo attack probably ranks second in importance. Much is said to have been accomplished along this line by Rear Admiral David Taylor, chief constructor of the navy, and his aids and new battleships, including Nos. 43 and 44, bids for which have been advertised, will be given special hub construction designed within the last eight or ten months to meet this danger.

Secretary Daniels recently submitted to each member of the board a memorandum of the laboratory and research subject, and it may be that the navy department believes that this general line of work will be given attention at an early day. In the memorandum the following occurs: "We have no adequate research laboratory equipped to meet our larger needs. We have a very modest establishment at Annapolis, which is known as the experimental station, but it is already overburdened with routine work, such as the testing of coals, the photomicroscopic examination of steel and iron and the conducting of other tests of materials used by the navy, and there are neither facilities nor room for work of this kind on the scale demanded by new conditions."

"I have been advised by such members of your council as I have talked with of the necessity of the creation of an experimental and research laboratory such as is now considered an essential part of every great manufacturing establishment. I wish to make a definite recommendation to congress on this point and a request for a proper appropriation, and I feel that the members of the advisory council are peculiarly fitted to advise me as to just what is needed. Almost all of the members have research and experimental laboratories of their own or have at their disposal laboratories of this kind provided by some manufacturing industry. They have, therefore, the practical knowledge as to what such a laboratory should be, how large it should be, what sort of tools and materials it should have and what kind of a building is needed."

Members of the board are: Thomas A. Edison, chairman; W. R. Whitney, L. H. Baekeland, Frank Julian Sprague, Benjamin G. Lamme, R. S. Woodward, Arthur Gordon Webster, A. M. Hunt, Alfred Craven, Spencer Miller, William LeRoy Emmett, Matthew B. Sellers, Hudson Maxim, Peter Cooper Hewitt, Thos. Robbins, Howard E. Coffin, Andrew J. Riker, Henry A. Wise Wood, Elmer A. Sperry, William L. Saunders, Benjamin B. Thayer, J. W. Richards and Lawrence Addicks.

reality as another state wishes to aggrandize itself at our expense. "The question is not whether we ought to make war, or not, but when we ought to enter the war. In any case we ought not to allow Bulgaria to crush Serbia in order that she then may attack us with all her forces. The National soul says it is to the interest of Greece that Bulgaria should be crushed. If Bulgaria should triumph Hellenism will be completely vanquished."

The sitting of the chamber then was adjourned until next Monday.

STRIKE

OF MACHINISTS IN CLEVELAND PLANT LONG PREDICTED, NOW A FACT

Men Contending for an Eight-Hour Day—No War Munitions Made at Plant Involved.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Cleveland, Oct. 12.—The long predicted strike of machinists at the plant of the Warner and Swazey company was a fact today. Three hundred pickets surrounded the factory when work started this morning. Many machinists on the day shift were persuaded to join the strikers as they appeared for work. The strike was declared last night and large numbers of the night shift failed to report for duty. The plant was still running today and officials claimed it would continue to operate.

Union leaders asserted the strike was a success. The men are contending for the eight-hour day. The strike is a sequel to that at the Cleveland Automatic Machine company, shell-making plant, a week ago when the men won their eight-hour day demand, but did not gain all other points sought. The Warner and Swazey company does not manufacture war munitions.

WILL APPEAL TO STATE.
(Associated Press Telegram)
Coshocton, O., Oct. 12.—The Coshocton Gas Company has refused to accept the rate of 25 cents per thousand for gas, fixed by the city council in an ordinance passed a week ago and will appeal to the public utilities commission for permission to boost the rate to 30 cents. The company declares the city ordinance is confiscatory.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Mt. Vernon, O., Oct. 12.—J. K. Leedy, a former living near Ankneytown, this county, died suddenly Sunday following a very brief illness. He aided in lifting heavy timbers Saturday while building a barn and it is believed he suffered an internal rupture which caused his death.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Braves' Field, Boston, Oct. 12.—While yesterday's crowd was the largest ever gathered for a world's series baseball game it was early evident that today's throng was to break all previous records. It was a holiday in Boston, and three hours before the game started the field stands were jammed to their capacity and there was a line of fans a quarter of a mile long outside the grounds hoping to get the privilege of standing room.

For this fourth game of the 1915 series, there was doubt during the morning as to the batteries that would oppose each other. "We are going to even it up today," said Manager Pat Moran, of the Phillies, "and go back home for the fifth game tomorrow with the count standing two and two. I am not sure at this hour who will be my pitching selection, but you can say for me that whether it is Chalmers, Rixey or Mayer, he will be out there to win and the Sox will find rump-making a difficult pastime."

"We have the series clinched and will make it three to one in our favor today," said Manager Carrigan of the Boston Red Sox. "I have three good pitchers ready and anxious to take their turn in the box, and it is hard to choose between them. They all have a winning game up their sleeves."

It was another perfect day with not a cloud in the sky, and a summer glow in the atmosphere. The thousands of Boston fans came out today to have a good time. There are all sorts of "Rooters' organizations here, and they were all in evidence today. Most of them brought bands with them and there was a crash of music in the air all the time. Occasionally, the crash became a clash but no fans did not mind the interference but applauded.

"DUTCH" LEONARD, A TRAP DRUMMER BY PROFESSION.
(Associated Press Telegram)
San Francisco, Oct. 12.—"Dutch" Leonard, who pitched the Boston Red Sox to victory yesterday, in the world's series, forsook music as a means of livelihood to play baseball. Six years ago, the Leonard family lived in Fresno, Calif., and was known for musical ability. "Dutch" was a trap drummer. Until his success as a pitcher altered his plans, he was considering taking up professional orchestra work.

Ten minutes before the game began, thousands of people swarmed around the fences of the park clamoring for admission. It was the greatest throng that ever saw a professional game of baseball in this country, according to baseball men.

Shore and Cady were announced as the batteries for Boston, and Chalmers and Burns for Philadelphia. The statute books of Massachusetts name October 12, as a legal holiday in memory of Christopher Columbus' discovery. Unwritten law in Boston stamped the day this year as a holiday in honor of the world series baseball contenders.

Another tremendous crowd thronged the approaches of Braves' Field for the fourth game of the title test between the Red Sox and the Phillies and countless thousands had no other plan for the day than to be where they could follow the play.

The crowd early assumed proportions greater than that of the morning hours yesterday. The bright sun and the weather vane pointing to the south promised more comfortable weather than that in which the third game was played. The balance of the series having swung in favor of the Red Sox, two games to one, by their ninth-inning victory yesterday, the contending teams went into the fourth tilt today with a new mental adjustment. The Phillies were forced into a defensive position in which they were beset by an all-important question—a problem of pitching. The iconoclastic Red Sox had weakened their faith in the pitching prowess of the Quaker idol, Alexander, who was told from his high place yesterday before the swing of Boston bats. When he toppled, the Bostonians moved into an advantage which forced upon Manager Moran the necessity of finding a successor for the dominant part which Alexander had filled in his campaign plans for the world championship.

Although the Boston lead was only a single game, the problem of the Philly leader was no simple one, early today. Another defeat today would put the Red Sox within one victory of gaining the title with possibly three games to play; and for those three games, Foster, Leonard and Shore are available in turn for a call to resume the pitching services which have proved so remarkably effective. Two leading Philadelphia pitchers, Eddie Plank and Rixey, are out of the game.

SUCCESS

Of Russians, and Bulgarian Invasion of Serbia Features of War News

REPORTS OF TEUTON SUCCESS

Received But No Definite Claims are Made

RUSSIANS' AMMUNITION

Has Evidently Been Increased As Indicated By the Accuracy and Efficiency of Their Artillery—Activity of British Submarines in the Baltic is Reported to be Extending.

(Associated Press Telegram)

London, Oct. 12.—The new Balkan campaign came to the fore still more prominently today with the announcement that Bulgarian troops had invaded Serbia. Thus far few details have been received of this movement which has been generally expected. The speech of former Premier Venizelos in the Greek chamber of deputies is regarded in England as favorable to the cause of the entente allies. The declaration of the former premier that it was no longer a question whether Greece ought to make war, but merely when she would do so, was made with the approval of a majority of the chamber. The former premier told the government plainly that only as long as his policy was followed would it receive his support.

Detailed information is lacking concerning the progress of the Serbian campaign. The Germans assert they are advancing steadily to the south of the Danube, although they make no specific mention of the amount of ground gained or the points taken. Unofficial dispatches from Nish state that the Serbians have checked the German advance at several points on the Danube, in some cases throwing back the invaders across the river. In other directions they are said to have driven the invaders out of Serbian villages taken in the first assaults.

On the eastern front, the Germans are still hammering at the positions before Dvinsk, their latest effort being to force the Dvina river, ten miles above the city. Elsewhere Russian forces are attacking fiercely particularly in eastern Galicia. Here, they are reported to have won a considerable victory.

All accounts of military observers testify to the accuracy and efficiency of the Russian artillery which is now demonstrated beyond a doubt to have recovered from the handicap caused by shortage of ammunition. The failure of the Germans to capture Dvinsk after a month's fighting is characterized in England as evidences of remarkable regeneration of the Russian forces. General Ivanoff has regained more than half the ground evacuated after the loss of Lutsk.

The presence on the Caucasian front of Grand Duke Nicholas is expected to revivify operations there which have been inactive pending the change of command.

Activity of British submarines in the Baltic is extending and it is the hopes of the British to put an end to the passage of supplies to Germany from Scandinavian countries.

Recent events on both the eastern and western fronts have brought another wave of optimism in England, similar to that occasioned two weeks ago by the British and French victories on the western battle fields. In view of the costly failure of the German attacks against Loos, the progress of French troops south of Sochez, and the gradual extension of their gains near Tannenberg, the outlook on the Franco-Belgian front, is now regarded as move favorable to the entente allies.

Republican State Committee To Indorse Governor Willis And McDermott Liquor Bill

Columbus, Oct. 12.—General endorsement of the Willis administration and particularly commendation of the McDermott liquor licensing, Sprague congressional redistricting and Parrett-Whittemore taxation laws, was planned by leading members of the Republican state central committee which met here today, on call of Chairman W. L. Parmenter of Lima.

Influential members of the committee gave out word when the meeting opened that the committee was virtually unanimous in its determination to adopt a resolution expressing full confidence in Governor Willis' management of state affairs, and in the merit of all legislative measures of the last assembly which were intended to fulfill platform pledges.

Committee members from a few large cities were somewhat opposed to an endorsement of too specific nature for the McDermott and Sprague laws, which will be subjected to referendum November 2, it was said. They feared entanglement of state with local issues in the coming election. Their opposition was overcome, committee leaders said, by the apparent necessity of refuting reports, said to have been circulated by enemies of the administration that Republicans of the state are not standing solidly behind Governor Willis.

Most members of the committee attended today's meeting. The session was executive. Call for the conference was issued following the action of the Democratic state executive and central committees recently in endorsing the present liquor licensing system, as against that of the McDermott law, and denouncing the Sprague redistricting law.

True Secret of Keeping Youthful Looking

(The Beauty Seeker.)
"The real secret of keeping young-looking and beautiful," says a well-known physician, "is to keep the liver and bowels normally active. Without these requisites, poisonous waste products remain in the system, and the complexion and looking in various organs, tissues, joints. One becomes flabby, obese, nervous, mentally sluggish, dull-eyed, wrinkled and sallow of face."
"But to get liver and bowels working as they ought, without producing evil effects, has been the problem. Fortunately, there is a prescription of unquestioned merit, which may now be had in convenient tablet form. Its value is due largely to an ingredient derived from the humble May apple, or its root, which has been called 'vegetable calomel' because of its effectiveness—though of course it is not to be classed with the real calomel of mercurial origin. There is no habit-forming action in these tablets—that's the name—and their use is not followed by weakness or exhaustion. On the contrary, the tablets are vegetable tablets that impart tone and elasticity to the related intestinal wall. So that the tablets may be procured from any druggist—a dime's worth will do—will prove a revelation to any constipated, liver-troubled person."

Chief Cause of Pimples, Blotches, Sallow Skin

(Messenger of Health.)
Unsightly eruptions, pimples, blotches, yellow or muddy skin, usually due to a sluggish liver and bowels, and a polluted blood stream as a consequence. How foolish in such cases to use a simple remedy. You need only have made a hit particularly with any drug store, which is as effective as it is harmless and quick acting. It is an old formula, long recognized by the medical profession, which has been put in tablet form, and at such small cost no one need now be deprived of its wonderful benefits.
"Santal tablets"—that's the name—are entirely vegetable and there's no habit-forming action. You need only get about a dime's worth, and swallow one at bedtime to realize there's nothing quite so good for their purpose. The action in the morning is so easy, so soothing, and instead of a weakening after-effect, you feel truly refreshed and invigorated. Santal tablets are not the finest remedy known for constipation and torpid liver, but they are the most sensible treatment for the common difficulties of the character mentioned.

Great Demand for New Constipation Remedy

They say that the advent of the "santal" tablet as a vegetable substitute for calomel has resulted in an extraordinary demand for this remarkable product. It seems to have made a hit particularly with those afflicted with chronic constipation, who were quick to recognize its advantages over calomel and the usual laxatives.
Santal tablets, aside from their efficacy, combine with their pleasant taste to a tendency to aid in bringing about natural functioning—instead of encouraging the "costly" habit of abusing the bowels by the use of cathartics. They add tone to the intestinal wall, and they work so easily and gently, they are of course preferred on this account to the violently acting purgatives. Their persistency is another reason for the popularity of santal tablets. One need procure only a dime's worth, and take one tablet upon retiring, to be convinced that the "santal" remedy for constipation, torpid liver, and their many evil consequences, has really been found. Druggists Beware.

GERMAN LINES PIERCED BY CZAR'S ARMY

RUSSIAN OFFENSIVE BEGINS
COINCIDENT WITH TEUTONS' ATTACK ON SERBIA

And is Being Vigorously Pushed in Eastern Galicia—Many Prisoners Have Been Captured.

(Associated Press Telegram.)
Petrograd, Oct. 12.—Via London.—Russian forces have pierced the Austro-German lines on the Stripsa river. They have already taken prisoner more than 2,000 men, and petty officers and have captured four guns and ten rapid fireers. The Russian advance is being pushed vigorously.
The victory for the Russians reported by Petrograd was won in Eastern Galicia where the troops of Emperor Nicholas started a "formidable offensive coincident with the opening of the Teutonic campaign against Serbia. The attack is being made north of the Rumanian border and may have been undertaken with a view to the political effect on the Balkan situation. The Stripsa river is a branch of the Danester, extending to the North to the west of Tarnopol.

BOSTON WINS

Epiphany twirlers, hurried in the series thus far, were subjects of consideration by Manager Moran. Manager Moran early practically had decided to use Chalmers, a right hander, to try to stop the rush of the Red Sox. His delivery, which sends the ball to the plate in a low and evasive line, cutting corners, has been successful to an unusual degree at times. Manager Moran, in fact, was quoted today as saying that he would have sent Chalmers instead of Mayer against Boston on Saturday, but for an element which he feared would operate to his disadvantage. Epiphany twirlers, he declared, and erratic left handers, was the other possibility. Finally, some doubt existed as to the choice of Manager Carrigan. But a youthful southpaw, who played a prominent part in the pitching which brought the team to a championship, has not yet pitched in the series.

Leonard's success against the Phillies yesterday demolished the theory that they would fall heavily upon left handers, and Manager Carrigan said he felt certain that Carrigan would be started. But the Boston manager also mentioned Shore as a possible choice, and it was thought that the latter would be turned against the Phillies to take advantage of what he learned of their weakness at bat in the first game of the series. Although Boston lost this game, Shore was credited by many with having out-pitched Alexander.

Carrigan said that no matter whether Shore or Ruth went into the game, he would not himself be in the line-up this afternoon. As catching for Leonard yesterday, he was a big factor in the team's pitching which retired the Phillies in order after the third inning.

entrance to Braves field, was a pleasing prospect to the players, as they went to their dressing rooms this morning. It was the last game in which they were to share in the proceeds, the National Commission rules limiting players' participation to four games.

It was believed that today's spectator army would not be less than that of yesterday, which number 12,500 paid admissions, the receipts totaling $83,191. In each case the figures constituted new additions to world series and other baseball records. Figuring from such a basis for today's game, members of the team which wins the series will receive about $3,700 each. The losers share individually will amount to about $2,500.

The fans who made the first rush through the gates of Braves' field today, had formed in line soon after yesterday's game was finished.

Sick Eggs.
Examine an egg, a perfectly fresh egg, and see how easily and quickly it comes out of its shell. Now, an egg that does not come out of the shell readily, that sticks together and rolls around—that egg has had an attack of a disease similar to peritonitis. It is an infected egg. Conditions are present that show conclusively the presence of disease—Bad Health.

NEWSPAPERS

PROTEST TO BOARD OF HEALTH THAT CERTAIN REQUIREMENT IS UNFAIR.

Exact Pledge that They Will Not Advertise from Non-Medical Healers.

(Associated Press Telegram.)
Columbus, Oct. 12.—Officers of the Ohio Associated Dailies protested before the state medical board today against the requirement of a pledge "never to become an itinerant or advertising practitioner" from applicants for license under the new Platt-Elis law relating to non-medical practitioners.

G. W. C. Perry of Chillicothe, was spokesman for the newspaper publishers. He declared the board was exceeding its authority by demanding that medical practitioners promise never to advertise and characterized the practice as a curtailment of constitutional rights. The board did not disclose any tendency to recede from its position of requiring the pledge from prospective licensees.

Representatives of hospitals and nurses' training schools met with the board late today to discuss means of putting into effect the new Sprague nurses' registration law.
Other newspaper publishers who appeared before the medical board were: Fred D. Wallace, Coshocton; F. W. Bush, Athens; Jason Rodgers, New York; Harry E. Taylor, Portsmouth; C. H. Spencer, Newark; Merritt C. Speidel, Piqua; W. O. Little, Zanesville; R. B. Frederick, Martins Ferry; Samuel G. McClure, Youngstown; E. H. Emory, Chicago, and E. E. Rutledge, Kenton.

How Peasantry Died.
Pausanias, the Greek general, died by self-administered poison. When he was administered by those sent to apprehend him on a charge of treason and heretofore he took refuge in the sanctuary of a temple. Unable to remove him by force and also unwilling to violate the sanctuary, the officers walked up the entrance and began to unroof the building. When he could see they noticed that he was chewing something which proved to be a quill filled with poison. By the time the work had sufficiently advanced to admit of their entrance he was in a dying condition.

SERBIA WAS INVADED BY BULGARIANS

ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM
Paris, Oct. 12.—Bulgarian troops invaded Serbia last night.

Opening of hostilities against Serbia by Bulgaria has been a foregone conclusion, since the rupture between Bulgaria and the allies. In fact the Bulgarian government issued a manifesto to the nation last week, proclaiming its decision to espouse the cause of Germany, Austria and Turkey.

BRANCH RAILROAD
INSTEAD OF MAIN LINE IS POINT OF ATTACK.

(Associated Press Telegram.)
London, Oct. 12.—A dispatch to the Times from Athens says that the Bulgarians began an attack at Caribogaz near Knaishavatz at midday on Monday.

Military experts have assumed that when Bulgaria struck she would attempt to seize the railroad running from Belgrade to Constantinople by way of Nish. Another line runs direct from Nish to Saloniki and is the only one over which the allied troops now being landed at the Greek port could be transported north to the aid of the Serbians.

Knaishavatz, near which point the Bulgarians are reported to have invaded Serbia is on a branch line railroad running from Nish to Zajcar, a fortified town on the Serbian frontier, and Negotin, on the Danube.

Knaishavatz is 25 miles northeast of Nish which has been the capital of Serbia since the Austrian occupation of Belgrade early in the war. It is an equal distance east of Alexinat, a station on the Nish-Belgrade railroad, located on the Morava river. At Alexinat, the Serbs were defeated by the Turks in 1876.

Hope for general and permanent peace lies in the restitution of the land to the people, Walter McArthur of San Francisco, a labor leader and United States shipping commissioner here told the congress last night. He spoke on the "Fundamental Causes of War."

M'DANIEL TEAM TO PRACTICE FOR SUNDAY'S GAME

The McDaniel football team will practice tonight at 7 o'clock at Sixth and Main streets in preparation for next Sunday's game though final details for the game have not been completed. An effort is being made to recruit the Mansfield Tigers, formerly the Massillon Tigers, for this date. A few years ago the Massillon eleven was the best professional team in the state and it is claimed that the same high standard has been maintained. If this game is booked it will without doubt be the most important game played in the two years the Newark team has been organized.

ORMONDE AND HAL BOY RACE FOR BIG WAGER

MATCH RACE AT LEXINGTON IS FEATURE OF GOOD PROGRAM THIS AFTERNOON

The 2:19 Trot brings Out Big Field of Good Horses While Other Races Complete Bill.

(Associated Press Telegram) Lexington, Ky., Oct. 12.—The principal attraction at today's meeting of the Grand Circuit here was the match race between Judge Ormonde and Hal Boy, for a side wager of $10,000. R. J. Mackenzie, of Canada is backing Hal Boy, while C. A. Valentine, of Columbus is behind Judge Ormonde. The track is in good condition. The Ashland, a 2:19 trot, for a purse of $2,000 with Peter Scott barred, will bring together many good horses.

The 2:01 class pace for a $1200 stake, the 2:08 class trot and the three-year-old trot each for $1,000 are the other races on the program.

After losing the first heat to Ax-tien, Peter Scott, owned by Henry Oliver of Pittsburg, won the Walnut Hall $3,000 stake and cup, the principal event of the Grand circuit race program yesterday taking the last three heats in easy style. Nathan Axworthy, driven by E. F. Geers, broke so badly that he was distanced in the first heat. Ax-tien finished second and Lettie Lee third in the race.

On behalf of the association and the Walnut Hall farm, George A. Bain presented the $500 cup trophy to Mr. Oliver. The owner and the horse were given an ovation by the large crowd.

Bingen Silk won the Lexington stake for 2-year-old trotters in straight heats from Harrods Creek and Adele Block, Driver Chandler scoring a hollow victory in each heat. Auto Zombro was an easy winner of the 2:08 pace, though he lost the second heat to Lustrous McKinney. Loomis landed him in front at the wire in the first, third and fourth heats, though Lustrous McKinney, which won the second, led in the third heat to the three-quarter pole.

Princess Margaret moved up to the second place in this heat. In the fourth Auto Zombro was never in danger. Fleming drove Billy Brino into second place for third money.

Bertha Carey, driven by Charles De Ryder, won the 2:11 trot in straight heats from Pair Virginia, which finished second in each heat. The last heat was raced after sundown, by agreement. Rose D was distanced in the second heat for Driver Hall's violation of the rules.

Peter Volo, 2:02 failed in his effort to lower his record. Driven by Murphy he trotted the mile in the following time: Quarter :30 3-4; half, 1:01 1-4; three-quarters, 1:31 1-2; mile, 2:03 3-4.

Walnut Tree, that started to heat 2:12 1-4, Murphy driving, trotted the mile in 2:10 3-4, making the quarter post in :35, half in 1:07 1-2 and three-quarters in 1:39.

Pottery and Secrecy.

In the royal manufactory of pottery at Meissen, Saxony, the work was formerly carried on with the utmost secrecy to prevent the processes from becoming known elsewhere. The establishment was a complete fortress, the portcullis of which was not raised day or night, no stranger being permitted to enter for any purpose whatever. Every workman, even the chief inspector, was sworn to silence. This injunction was formally repeated every month to the superior officers employed, while the workmen had constantly before their eyes in large letters the warning motto, "Be Secret. Unto Death." It was well known that any person divulging the process would be imprisoned for life in the castle of Koehnstein. Even the king himself when he took strangers of distinction to visit the works was enjoined to secrecy. One of the foremen, however, escaped and assisted in establishing a manufactory in Vienna, from which the secrets spread all over Germany.

Light and Sound and Glass.

Why doesn't the closed window shut out light just as much as it shuts out sound? Both light and sound travel through the air, and their waves come in contact with the glass. The light, after it has gone through the window, seems just as strong or stronger, while the sound seems ever so much weaker. Why is it? Many of us have wondered. The reason is that light is not a wave of air, while sound is. Light is a wave in the ether which is in the glass as well as in the air, so that light in passing through glass still has its natural path of ether. But when sound waves strike the window glass they must put the glass into vibration, and the glass in turn must make the air inside vibrate. All this lessens the strength of the sound waves, and they reach our ears capable of producing a less startling effect than are the light waves which reach our eyes.

The Measure of a Man.

At a meeting at which a prominent modern statesman, who is short in stature, was to speak the local chairman, endeavoring to be witty, observed that he was somewhat disappointed about the politician's physical proportions. "I had heard so much about this gentleman," he said, "that I naturally expected to meet a big man in every sense, but, as you see for yourselves, he is very small." Many an orator would have been upset by such an unfortunate beginning to the proceedings, but not so this one. "I am grieved to find," he said, with mock seriousness, "that your chairman is disappointed in my size, but this is owing to the way you have here of measuring a man. In my part of the kingdom we measure a man from his chin up, but you evidently measure him from his chin down."

Fearful Premature Burial.

The doctor who left instructions that a bell watch should be fixed to his wrist after death as a precaution against premature burial may have heard of the similar safeguards prescribed by Meyerbeer. Two men were to watch over him night and day for five days, he directed, and bells were to be hung from his hands and feet to give warning of the slightest movement. Finally, incisions were to be made in his throat.

Harriet Martineau also had a fear of burial alive and left directions for her body to be decapitated, while Lady Burton stipulated for a post mortem examination of her remains. Which, we may ask, is greater, the fear of death or the fear of life?—London Standard.

Ducks and Mosquitoes.

According to experiments reported by S. G. Dixon, the most formidable animal enemy of the mosquito is the duck, and the introduction of this bird is recommended for eliminating mosquitoes and the diseases which these insects spread from marshy regions, where draining would be too costly. Two artificial pools were constructed of equal area, ducks being placed in one and fish in the other. The former pool was quickly freed from mosquito pupae and larvae, while in the other they continued to abound. Wild ducks are said to prefer mosquitoes to all other food.—Indianapolis News.

SEVERE FIGHTING ABOUT BELGRADE STILL GOES ON

(Associated Press Telegram)

Paris, Oct. 12.—Although Belgrade had been evacuated, the Matin's correspondent at Nish in a dispatch filed Sunday said the fighting continued stubbornly on the hills surrounding the city, some of which had been taken and retaken several times.

"The invaders threw over 50,000 shells on Belgrade," the dispatch says, "sparing neither hospitals nor churches. Synagogues were destroyed and Jewish families who had taken refuge there were buried in the ruins. French artillery took part in the defense of the city. The British with several heavy guns, inflicted great losses upon the Germans and sank two monitors in the Danube."

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Emblems.

There is no recognized emblem for "progress," although a hand holding a torch has sometimes been used as a symbol for it. The early Christians used a closed book as an emblem for "knowledge," and an open book for "perfect knowledge." The owl, the bird of Minerva, goddess of wisdom, was the symbol of wisdom among the Greeks. A perfect circle is sometimes used as a symbol for unity.—New York Times.

NEWSPAPERS EXCLUSIVELY

To be Used in the Big $50,000.00 Senreco Tooth Paste Advertising Campaign.

"The entire $50,000.00, which has been appropriated by The Sentanel Remedies Company to advertise SENRECO Tooth Paste, will be used in the newspapers of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Kentucky, West Virginia and Pennsylvania," said the secretary of the said Company to the Advocate representative—"and why not?"

"Newspapers reach the people and get results quickly. SENRECO Tooth Paste has a story to tell those people, for SENRECO is not only a tooth paste of remarkable cleansing properties and delicious flavor, that leaves the mouth feeling wholesomely clean, but it has therapeutic value for the treatment of swollen, sensitive, bleeding gums and the prevention of pyorrhea that is recognized by the dental profession as being the best known corrective and preventive for that trouble."

"The public is literally clamoring for SENRECO, for it is not only an article of exceptional merit but it is being marketed at the popular price of 25c for large two ounce tube."

"Such being the case why should we not have gone direct to the people through the newspapers with this story?"

"Experience has taught us that the newspapers produce returns quickly. It is our policy to tell in the above mentioned six states, and that is the reason that the entire amount appropriated for this smashing, big advertising campaign will be confined entirely to the daily and weekly press."

JOHNNY KILBANE WINS ON POINTS OVER DELANEY

Akron, O., Oct. 12.—In a rather tame 12-round bout here last night Johnny Kilbane, feather-weight champion, outpointed Cal Delaney, another Cleveland boxer. Kilbane outlasted Delaney, who apparently was satisfied to stay the limit. The champion's fast and aggressive work in the latter half of the contest dazzled Delaney, who was in a weakened condition at the final gong. Delaney was unable to get in more than a dozen sound wallops all through the fight. One of these opened an old cut over Kilbane's eye.

Up to the sixth round the two wrestled and milled around the ring without either inflicting any damage. From the sixth round on Kilbane opened up and had his opponent in such shape that he was glad to creep into his shell and stay there. Kilbane was able to hit Delaney at will without a return.

His mother took him from the institution Saturday to visit his home in Cleveland and he became lost at the Union station.

Slabaugh for Mayor.

According to the American Tribune's logic, Frank E. Slabaugh should not be elected mayor of Newark because he recently completed his second term as sheriff of Licking county. Because he has served as sheriff the Tribune thinks he ought not to be mayor. The Tribune has figured out the exact amount that Mr. Slabaugh drew from the treasury and has intimated that the entire amount was retained by Mr. Slabaugh, whereas, as a matter of fact, his jail expenses, the feeding of prisoners, should have been deducted from the total.

It should also be borne in mind that Mr. Slabaugh while sheriff had to pay all traveling and incidental expenses of himself and deputies, Carl Martin, George Taylor, and Henry Rinehart in connection with conveying prisoners of the penal institutions to which they had been sentenced and bringing back prisoners arrested at other places. Livery bills also totaled a considerable amount, and all of these items should be deducted when figuring up the net amount drawn by the sheriff.

Domestics at the jail, to cook food for the prisoners were also paid by the Sheriff, and that was no inconsiderable amount.

It is true that Mr. Slabaugh was appointed sheriff of Licking county in July, 1910, and that he was twice elected by the people of this county. The size of his vote indicated the popularity of the man and it may be added that during his entire tenure of office not a word of complaint or just criticism of Mr. Slabaugh was offered. Frank E. Slabaugh was on the job. He knew his business and he attended to it well.

Mr. Slabaugh's business and executive ability was demonstrated thoroughly, and then along towards the close of his term of office he was signally honored by the Odd Fellows of Ohio by being elected grand warden of this state.

Mr. Slabaugh is a lawyer. He knows how to perform the duties of mayor of Newark. He is a good business man, a capable speaker, and as such can represent the city with dignity and ability.

The fact that Mr. Slabaugh was elected sheriff and then re-elected by a large majority, and the further fact that he discharged his official duty with credit every moment he was in office, ought to be one big reason why he should be chosen mayor of Newark on Nov. 2. Mr. Slabaugh was a splendid sheriff. He will make just as good a mayor.

Some one writes to ask why it is so much more apt to rain at noon and 6 p. m. when people are returning from work, than at any other time? Well, it is probably due to the same causes that in the rural districts make it shower just as the farmer is trying to get in a load of hay.

It is contrary to neutrality to ship submarines to the warring powers, but of course if they are made here and the freight bill dated from Canada, it is all right.

A Singer-Poet.

The literary critics may not give the highest rank to the poems of James Whitcomb Riley. Yet the school children never paraded for some of the men they praise more highly. Nor were their poems read in thousands of schools on one day, as happened on Mr. Riley's birthday, October 7.

Few poets were ever so generously compensated. That of course is only a sordid standard, and no measure of real value. Yet it does signify that a man had qualities reaching deep into human nature.

The average poet lives on Grub street. His admirers regret the world of ignoramus who fail to appreciate him. Yet perhaps his obscurity is due to neglect of some vital principle.

Riley is known in every home and school house, because he has qualities of sympathy, humor, pathos. More than that, he has a gift not possessed by many greater poets, that of making his verses sing.

Many cultivated disciples of literature think that poetry consists of picturesque and glowing imagery, of intricate and abstruse thought. By careful study you may be able to discern in their verses some fine depth of feeling. Yet they have no rhythm, no motion, no go.

A poem is a song. The world's earliest verses were sung by minstrels who made them live over the centuries. A poem failing to appeal to some of the instincts reached by music and the dance, is only half a poem. If its form is so obscure and awkward that it takes a hedge of foot-notes to convey its meaning, it fails of its principal purpose, that of stirring the human heart.

Whatever the faults of Riley's poetry, it has these vital elements of lucidity and singability. It voices the feeling of the child in the school, the mother in her home, the toiler at his task. It is expression of the voiceless thoughts of millions constitutes good poetry. James Whitcomb Riley's verse abundantly passes that test.

When the baseball season is over, it becomes difficult for some of our intelligent and thoughtful citizens to find anything in the newspapers worth their attention. Still, in a month or two the dope on the 1916 season will demand their careful scrutiny.

You may not be able to persuade the automobilists to stop at railroad crossings for their own safety, but they should reflect how disorderly it is to litter up the neighborhood with human limbs and automobile parts.

What the average magazine editor is looking for nowadays is the best looking picture of a girl for his front page cover, and the greatest number of stories about the amours of Lovey and Dovey.

The congressmen are anxious to get to Washington where they can make those burning speeches about the necessity of economy and larger appropriations for their own districts.

There is a growing feeling that it pays public service corporations to spend a dollar now and then just to get the public good will, even if the returns don't come back the same day.

It is not believed that Turks will kill all the Armenians this time, as they will need to reserve some for future massacres.

The increasing number of hunters does not always mean that any more game will be shot.

Wall Street's Rake-Off.

(New York World.)

The total transactions of the New York Stock Exchange for five days of the week ending Oct. 2 exceeded 7,000,000 shares. This means, $1,750,000 in brokers' commissions.

All this money comes out of the pockets of customers, and there is naturally no disposition on the part of members of the Stock Exchange to check the frenzy of stock-gambling. Neither is there a disposition on the part of the governors to inquire too closely into the character of some of the stocks that are dealt in.

The game is wide open, the sky is the limit and everything goes. Already sensational stories are everywhere in circulation in regard to fortunes that have been achieved by pyramiding shoe-strings. It is the same sort of talk that the tourist at Monte Carlo used to hear morning, noon and night, and the kind of prosperity that was dinned into his ears there had the same basis as this new Wall street prosperity. In other words, whatever happened to the players, the bank's percentage was a mathematical certainty.

After the lean years, Wall street's hands are again full of fat, and it is making the most of its opportunities. The general economic effect of this stock-gambling debauch can only be bad. A speculative public is not buying legitimate securities for investment. It is buying "war brides" and "war babies" in the naive belief that it can get rich quick in beating Wall street at its own game.

The day of reckoning will come, of course. The bottom will drop out of a crooked market. There will be much bleating among the lambs that have been trimmed. Defaulting cashiers and faithless clerks will make the kind of atonement that defaulting cashier and faithless clerks usually make in such circumstances. Amateur speculators will think longingly of the savings bank books that they once possessed. The Stock Exchange will come in for another period of investigation, with the demand for government regulation, and attorneys for the Exchange will issue eloquent statements explaining how the business of the country could not be carried on without an open gambling market for securities. The fool will again have been answered according to his folly, as he always has been and always will be.

Two confidence men in one of O. Henry's stories scrupulously refused to work New York because they did not regard it as sportsmanlike. To them it was like dynamiting bass in a Texas lake. Wall street is not much concerned about sportsmanship these days. Its motto is the motto of the father of Mr. Dooley's parlor socialist—"Get th' money."

TAKE A LOOK

If You Have Time

"In a just cause the weak o'ercome the strong," declared Sophocles, but he might have added that it sometimes takes more than a minute to do it.

Mississippi's next governor, T. G. Bilbo, will be 38 years of age tomorrow, and on the same day the governor of Tennessee, Ben Hooper, will be forty-five.

Puck says that it's better to have a good name than to be forced to pay cash. As a rule, yes; but the fellow who pays cash isn't bothered by a lot of bills the first of every month.

The more virtuous any man is, the less easily does he suspect others to be vicious.—Cicero.

Frank G. Warden has just bought his fourteenth hotel, a little deal involving only a couple of hundred thousand dollars. The captain now has his hotels so located that he has to "pay board" in mighty few towns.

The leading business men of the town are to meet on the night of October 28, enjoy a turkey dinner and use the long distance telephone line to San Francisco. Why not take advantage of the occasion to unite the Business Men's Association and the Newark Board of Trade? How would it do to form a Chamber of Commerce and consolidate the two organizations? Why have two when one should do the work of both?

Rippling Rhymes

WORK AND REST.

To work is good, to saw your wood, while yet the sun is shining, to make the hoe move to and fro, where pumpkin vines are twining. For men who shirk all useful work are never happy mortals, by any chance—they do not dance and fill the air with chorlles. But don't, my lad, make work a fad, the end and aim of living; for every day some time to play all toilers should be giving. In this broad land we beat the band, the way we hump and hustle; we keep up steam and work and scheme, and wear out mind and muscle. While young in years, above our ears the gray of age is showing; it would be best to stop and rest, but still we keep on going. Then something snaps—the brain perhaps—beyond all cures or patches, and we are shown to walls of stone, to cells in booby hatches. To work is grand, but stay your hand, when comes the evening playtime; take in the shows and things like those, and leave your tasks for daytime.

WALT MASON.

Spirit of the Press

Dr. Dumba Has His Hat.

If any comment on the late Dr. Dumba's recent visit to Newark is abundantly furnished by the Bohemians, Croats, Czechs, and Slovaks who have indignantly repudiated his sudden condescending interest in them. They came to "this free and glorious nation," as they call it, to get away from him and his sort of government, and have told him so in plain terms. They are Americans, not Austro-Americans, and owe no allegiance to the mishapsburgs. There are other diplomatic personages now resident here who are equally wrong-headed and could equally well be spared.—Collier's.

The Nine-Striped Man.

A conductor on a flier from the West into New York had nine gold bars on his left sleeve, indicating forty-five years of continuous service on that road. At eighteen years of age he began work on the road-bed with pick and shovel and worked his way up to the position of passenger conductor. When asked why he had had such a long service, he said that he had enjoyed good health, had worked for the road as though it were his own, had always paid especial attention to the people and invalids, had tried to practice the Golden Rule and to manifest a spirit of patience becoming the Christian man. It requires ability, tact, industry, and integrity to get those gold bars on the arm. They are a real ornament, an honor, to the man and the company both.—The Christian Herald.

Better Facilities.

An experimental village mail delivery system will be tried out in a small West Virginia village. The experiment will be followed with considerable interest. The cities have such a service, the rural free delivery service extends much the same facilities to the farmers. It is less necessary in the villages, to be sure, but it will come some day, and it should.—Zanesville Signal.

October.

October is a humdinger of a month.

Hayfeverites lose in this month the blooming beezers and begin to breathe regularly without profanity or sneezes.

Chestnuts are ready for butchering, and the hogs begin to drop from the trees.

The frost is on the punk—O, pshaw!

The trees that we saw leaving last spring are still here, but now the leaves are leaving.

Next spring the trees will be re-leaved again.

As the foliage drops, the little birds' branch-offices are distinctly visible.

Birds are advertised a great deal as dainty things, but they are such confoundedly filthy housekeepers that they can never stand it to occupy the same house two seasons.

The birds do in October what the trees do in the spring.

They go down south to buy a bale and do not return till the gentleman season has located with us again.

October's birthstone is the opal, and her distances when the sun is rising over mist always remind you of that festive and hoodoo breed of dork.

People living in towns where fairs were held are just beginning to get rid of the havoc created by the three-days' visit of the country relatives that the town people had visited for two weeks in August.

Suggestion

"Maw, was John Hancock the father of the Revolution?"
"He is so-called, my son."
"Then why doesn't the D. A. R. call itself the G. D. J. H.?"

Not Underated.

An interesting entrant in the "not-underated" advertisement contest is a certain brand of shock-absorber, which states that it "equalizes all unevennesses in the road and makes the car ride smoothly." This means that the car can go at speed over those little foot-high precipices at the ends of certain bridges we know about, and never jolt anybody a bit!

CORN'S LIFT OUT

Dr. Hunt's New Penetration Method Loosens Them Root and All. FULL SIZE BOX 10c.

No corn ever went so easily, quickly or surely as by Dr. Hunt's new way—the penetration principle of permanently curing corns. Dr. Hunt has devoted a life of study to this one subject. The final result is this entirely different method—a method by which corns GO forever in two short days.

Dr. Hunt's New Corn Cure comes in a simple plaster form. Six plasters in a box. Cut plaster size of corn and apply it. Doesn't "bulk" like clumsy pads. Contains no caustic to smart or cause blood-poisoning. No paring necessary. Wear any shoes. Ease comes the moment you apply this new remedy. You walk in comfort. You forget your feet. In two days corn lifts out.

Nothing like Dr. Hunt's New Corn Cure has been known before. It is an entirely new principle. Millions of packages have already been sold. Cures any corn. They must go. And the price is only ten cents a box. Guaranteed or money back. That's very little to pay for foot comfort. Sold by druggists and shoe dealers everywhere. Cure your corns once and for all, this new way. If any difficulty in securing, send 10 cents in stamps for a box, to American Chemical Company, Sidney, Ohio.

How to Have the Best Cough Remedy and Save $2 by Making It at Home

Cough medicines as a rule contain a large quantity of plain syrup. A pint of granulated sugar with 1/2 pint of warm water, stirred for 2 minutes, gives you as good a syrup as money can buy.

Then get your drugstore 2 1/2 ounces Pinex (all cents worth), pour into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with sugar syrup. This gives you, at a cost of only 54 cents, a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for $2.00 a quart selling at nearly $2. Full directions with Pinex. It keeps perfectly and tastes good.

It takes hold of the usual cough or chest cold at once and conquers it in 24 hours. Splendid for whooping cough, bronchitis and winter coughs.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it loosens the dry, hoarse or tight cough and heals and soothes the inflamed membranes in the case of a painful cough. It also stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent lumpy cough.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, combined with quinine, and has been used for generations to heal inflamed membranes of the throat and chest.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or your money refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

HAIR CURLING TROUBLES—SHE OVER-READ THIS!
Gals, have you heard about the newest way to curl the hair? If you have not, by all means, read this simple directions and try this wonderful method tonight before you go to bed. Just procure a new bottle of hair oil, from one of the plain liquid salines from your druggist, apply enough of the liquid with the brush to moisten the hair from roots to tips. Tomorrow morning you will be quite astonished when you find that your hair has dried in such lovely waves that, instead of being flat, it is naturally curled. Your hair will of course have more "bounce" and brilliancy than when the drying, sinning, waving iron is used. It will appear glossier and healthier, and, as a dressing for the hair, you'll find it pleasant to use, and it will leave no sticky, greasy or streaky trace.

Knights Hold Reception and Give Card Party This Afternoon in Club Rooms.

Regardless of the fact that this glorious country was discovered 423 years ago today, it has been only in recent years that there has been a movement started to make Discovery Day a legal holiday, which to a great many people appears to have been a very serious mistake. As much as we celebrate numerous other notable events. Had it not been for Christopher Columbus and his brave band of fearless men, with a single theory that proved to be correct, these other occasions would not have been possible to occur and it is most fitting that this day should be properly observed.

It was with this in mind that Governor Willis of Ohio this year issued a proclamation naming October 12 Discovery Day's legal holiday, and requesting all public places to suspend business for the day and that all American citizens decorate their places of business and fittingly observe the holiday. It was with this idea in mind that the Newark Council No. 721, Knights of Columbus, are celebrating the day with a most elaborate and diversified program in their beautiful new club rooms in West Main street.

The Knights are holding an informal reception this afternoon from 2 to 4 p. m., with music and cards, which will be the chief amusement. Some very beautiful prizes will be given to the fortunate parties. Punch will be served in the afternoon.

In the evening at 8 o'clock sharp and lasting until 11 they will give the following program: The principal address of the evening will be given by the Hon. T. J. Duffy, past state deputy. His subject will be "The Day We Celebrate."

Mrs. Mary Theresa Bloomer, impersonator and elocutionist, has selected the following as her most successful numbers: "Higher Culture in Dixie," "A Telephone Romance," and the "Gipsy Flower Girl."

Musie by Rosebraugh's orchestra, assisted by Miss Smith, harpist, of Zanesville, O., followed by a banquet.

The Knights are giving this as a public celebration and open house and all Knights of Columbus, their families and friends, Protestants and Catholics, are cordially invited, as this day should be celebrated as a national holiday and not by any particular religious organization.

The committee in charge assures you that it will be a day long to be remembered.

Today having been named as "Discovery Day," commemorating the discovery of America by Columbus, it is being celebrated as a legal holiday. It has been declared such in three states: Ohio, New York and California.

The banks of the city were closed today, and Postmaster F. T. Mercer received a telegram Tuesday morning from the postoffice department at Washington with instructions to observe the day. There will be no afternoon delivery and the money order department closed at noon for the remainder of the day. The general delivery and parcel post windows will be closed from noon until 5 o'clock, when they will be open until 7:30 o'clock.

Getting Rid of Blackheads And Other Aids to Beauty

There is one simple, safe and sure way that never fails to get rid of blackheads and that is to dissolve them. To do this get about two ounces of plain powdered nioxin from any drug store. Sprinkle a little on a hot, wet sponge, rub over the blackheads briskly, wash the parts and you will be surprised how the blackheads have disappeared. Blackheads are simply a mixture of dust and dirt and secretions from the body that form in the pores of the skin. By rubbing and squeezing only cause irritation, make large pores and do not get them out after they become hard. The powdered nioxin and the water simply dissolve the blackheads so they wash right out, leaving the pores free and clean and in their natural condition.

A soft, velvety complexion is the envy of every woman, and any woman can have her skin's desire if she will, before retiring every night, wash the face, arms and neck with plenty of cool water, dry thoroughly, and then apply freely a cream lotion made by dissolving one ounce of powdered zinc in a pint of hot water. This will give to the complexion that soft, velvety appearance so much admired and sought.

Women troubled with excessive perspiration in the armpits and other parts of the body can easily overcome this embarrassing condition by using a little hydrolyzed tannin on the parts. This simple powder will immediately destroy all body odors and control perspiration. It is certainly the most effective dress shield problem. (Advertisement)

Granville
(Special to Advocate.)
Granville, Oct. 12—Mrs. Elma Howland was born in McKean township, August 29, 1838, being the youngest of three children born to Mr. Jesse Gonsell and his wife, Mary Ann Howell who was the daughter of Hon. Elias Howell, member of Congress from this district in the 40's. Her parents died when she was a child and for several years she made her home with her grandparents. She was married while still in her teens to John Lane Howland, Rev. Jacob Little performing the ceremony.

She and her sisters were music pupils of Mr. Horace Hamlen, and she received many educational advantages unusual at that time. Mrs. Howland never had ambitions for any public recognition. Her sphere was the home, in which she always showed remarkable devotion. Her family and her circle of friends comprised her world. Her tenderness toward those in need or suffering was one of her most endearing qualities. No tramp ever went hungry from her door; no call of distress was ever disregarded. Her family being Presbyterians she was baptized when an infant, but in 1850 she joined the First Baptist church of Granville, under the pastorate of Rev. W. C. P. Rhoades, and has always been a lovely, devoted Christian. A splendid constitution enabled her to resist the infirmities of age, until about three weeks before her death, an attack of acute neuritis rendered her unconscious, in which condition she was tenderly cared for by her two daughters, assisted by a trained nurse. Every thing that science could suggest was done for her relief, but in vain. The end came quietly and peacefully. Without a gasp or struggle and she passed from the scene of her activities, leaving the home desolate, in which for many years she had been the guiding spirit. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Burton Case and Miss Carrie Howland, two granddaughters, Mrs. Robert G. Bell of New York City, and Mrs. R. S. Edwards of Des Moines, Iowa, one great grandson, and one sister, Mrs. Ann Eliza Gonsell of Tulsa, Oklahoma.

The funeral services will be held at the home on Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and interment will be made in Maple Grove cemetery.

Miss Merriman, who has spent the past three months with friends in Chicago, Ill., and Medina, O., returned to Granville Saturday and is visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles Longbridge.

The Travelers' club met in the parlors of the Baptist church Monday afternoon. Almost every active member, a large number of associates and guests enjoyed the program which was opened with a reading from Service, given by Mrs. J. E. Meaw. Mrs. Howe then gave a talk on "The Gold Rush." This was followed by the critics report and routine business. After a short intermission another reading from Service was given by Mrs. Meaw.

TO GERMANY ON THE FRYE CASE

Washington, Oct. 12.—The United States in a note dispatched to Germany today, to be presented by Ambassador Gerard on the case of the American ship William P. Frye, asks that if it is found necessary to destroy American ships, carrying absolute contraband, passengers and crew be removed to a safer place than small boats.

The American government accepts the German suggestion in reply to the proposal concerning a commission to investigate damages to the Frye, agreeing to dispense with the umpire and leave the case to two experts, one from each country.

In agreeing to submit to arbitration, interpretation of the treaty of 1825, to determine whether it gives Germany the right to destroy American ships in order to stop contraband traffic, the American government holds that not only must warning be given and passengers and crew saved, but that small boats are not considered a "place of safety" with the meaning of international law.

Festive Gifts in Spain.

It is the custom in Madrid for friends and acquaintances to send presents of bonbons on birthdays, name days and festivals. A large silver tray is piled with sweets of various kinds, with a cake made of eggs in the center. This is often surmounted with a silk flag or a pretty porcelain figure. Well known people receive as many as fifty of these trays on their birth and name days.

An Old Balloon Project.

As early as 1781 the French government granted a sum of money to establish a balloon service between Paris and Marseilles with what were known as the Montgolfier air balloons, though the project never became more than a project.

Between the Poles.

Although Lord Rayleigh is a noted scientist and a profound scholar, he has a humorous side to his nature, and he once played a neat little joke on a learned friend with whom he had been discussing some deep subjects.

"What is the difference between the north and south poles?" he asked gravely.

His lordship's friend thought he had a new scientific problem to tackle with and thought all the while of his brain to bear upon the question.

"I really must give it up," he said at last.

"The answer is simple enough," replied Lord Rayleigh with a smile.

"There is all the difference in the world!"—London Answers.

SHOT CRASHED
THROUGH JONES'
STORE WINDOW

A breech-loading, hammerless shot gun was accidentally discharged in the Jones hardware store in South Third street this morning, and a big hole was torn in the plate glass show window on the south side of the store. One of the clerks was demonstrating the gun to a prospective purchaser and had used a shell loaded with No. 7 1/2 shot. In breaking the gun to show the interior the hammer was a shrewd hit and the shell exploded. The two men were standing near the door at the front of the store and the lead went through the window, the shot striking the floor of the same and scattering fast enough to tear through a number of footballs, basket balls and punching bags. There was no one in front of the store at the time and no one in the store within range of the gun. Mr. J. D. Keely, in charge of the Jones store, stated that he was not aware whether the glass was insured but thought in all probability it was.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

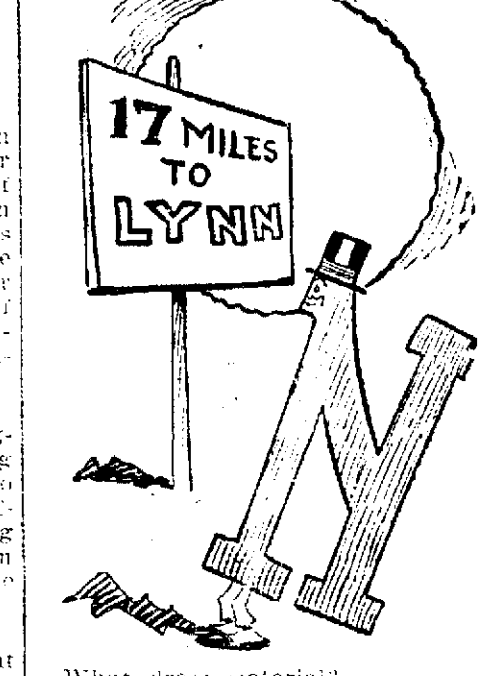

Contract Awarded. Meyer & Lindor have just been awarded the contract for the floor covering of the auditorium room of the new Pythian castle building on East Main street. The contract calls for over 800 yards of ten ounce khaki duck. This firm had for their competitors several large firms of Columbus and Toledo. This is another demonstration of the buy-at-home movement.

Mayor Bigbee's court. Pettibone charges that Johnson took $7.00 from him in South Third street Monday afternoon. Announce Birth. Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Black, formerly Miss Effie Bock, a nine pound daughter, Marjorie Larric, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bock, in 20 South Arch street. Aide To Be Out. Crawford who was injured in a fall from his buggy is reported as being somewhat improved today.

YOU MUST KEEP YOUR HEART TRUE

Stretching of Muscles Will Prove Stimulating Even When You're Tired. Exercise Posed by Miss Jean Henderson.

That the body under proper muscular control is as indispensable to the keyboard of a piano, as it is to the body of a man, is a fact of which many are ignorant. It is a fact which to apply a technique which results in harmony of expression, we are told in article XXIX, by Anna Shafter written for the Advocate development series.

By Anna Louise Shafter.
(Copyright, 1914, by J. K. Kelly.)
"The golden key to every exercise is practice."
Every art must have its technique and the art of keeping well and preserving or augmenting one's personal charm does not differ in this respect from the others.

A technique to be followed must be definite. To this definiteness of technique one gives the touch of individuality, one's conception of an outlook on life, as in music, and supplements the technique by individual interpretation, giving what is known as expression.

We have the technique of posing, through body oppositions, as given in the earlier part of this series. To acquire pose one must have flexible and active muscles. Never forget of overlook the importance of pose. It alone gives grace, and character to personality and is a long step toward health. A poised body can never have a sunken chest, a protruding abdomen or round shoulders. Pose gives proper muscular tension in repose it is restful and graceful in action it is both of these and more.

We have the technique of correct breathing. This, supplemented by pose, might be said to comprise everything in body building and body grace. Correct breathing is the fountain from which vitality flows, because sufficient oxygen acting upon the proper food means good blood and vitality. The best of diet without sufficient oxygen and lung ventilation means a waste of good fuel, because it does not develop vitality.

We have the technique of recuperative relaxation; and this develops will control.
Apply mental imagery as the final touch and you have the technique for a physical and mental development, which spells health, grace, charm and individual beauty.

The result has been most gratifying and the finances for the coming year have been provided. The pastor is preaching to large congregations and additions are being made to the church. The prospect for a prosperous year is flattering.

In Milady's Boudoir

By Given Sears

No woman can maintain her claim to beauty if her eyes show little red, threadlike lines of strain, nor if there are lines of weariness about them, or shadows of illness and exhaustion beneath them. Eyes should be clear and bright, capable of expressing vivacity or serenity, according to the soul which they reflect. Personally I prefer the steady serene gaze that suggests the paintings we have seen of the Madonna.

But the brightly roving eyes have their attractions too—more for some than for others. Eyes, like types of beauty, appeal to the taste of the beholder. I am most careful to adjust a book, magazine or newspaper at the easiest angle for reading.

Therefore, when I settle down to read I hold the book at various distances until it is just so far from my eyes or so near to them that I can read without the slightest sense of strain.

When I have read for a little time even though my eyes are not tired, I glance out of the window at the farthest roof, or up at the sky, and fix my sight upon the highest cloud. I stare at these objects for two or three or five minutes, and then my eyes go back to the printed page, very much rested.

When I am sewing or writing letters, or embroidering, I give my eyes these rest a dozen times a day, sometimes often. The moment my eyes are weary I stop whatever I am doing and rest them, either in the way I have described, or by closing them for a few minutes. I learned the last habit of eye repose from a literary friend of mine who writes many hours every day. She calls these "rest naps."

MRS. DAVIS FELL DOWN STEPS; BONE IN THIGH BROKEN

Stepping backward while working on a porch at her home Saturday afternoon, Mrs. Davis, of Granville, stepped into an open stairway leading into the basement and fell the full length of the flight of steps. She suffered a severe fracture of the left leg just below the hip. Dr. Loveless attended her. Late Saturday night the Bazler ambulance was called from this city, and Mrs. Davis was removed to the City Hospital for treatment.

Here's New Vigor For Overworked Stomachs

T. J. Evans, the popular druggist has been in the drug business long enough to have his own opinion of the best way of selling medicines. He says the plan adopted by Mi-o-na, the great dyspepsia remedy, is the fairest that he has ever heard of. He doesn't believe that a medicine ought to be paid for unless it does the user some good. And Mi-o-na is sold under a positive guarantee to relieve dyspepsia or to refund the money. You simply leave 50 cents on deposit with T. J. Evans and if after you have used the box of Mi-o-na you decide that it has done you no good, all you have to do is to tell him so and he will return your money.

Hundreds of people have been relieved of stomach agonies by using this remarkable remedy. It is not simply a good digester; it is a medicine that puts all of the digestive organs into normal condition and gives ruddy, glowing, vigorous health. A change for the better will be seen after the first few doses of Mi-o-na, and its continued use will soon give the power to eat anything at any time and not suffer distress afterward.

Mi-o-na is sold under a positive guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure. This is the strongest proof that can be offered as to the merit of the medicine.

Nothing lessens a man's success in his work or a woman's fascinating personality more than a weak stomach, with its attending evils. Use Mi-o-na and see how much more there is in life.

LARGE CATFISH WAS CAUGHT AT BUCKEYE LAKE

One of the largest catfish ever taken from the waters of Buckeye Lake was caught Saturday by H. R. Carroll, of East Russell street, Columbus, a motorman on the Soloto Valley traction line. The fish weighed 29 pounds and Mr. Carroll was unable to land it without assistance calling on his son, it requiring their combined efforts before the fish was finally landed on the shore. It was caught above the Glass Hotel, the fisherman using a mouse as bait.

Your Boys and Girls

Much of the demoralization arising in family life at meal time is caused by either the irregular coming and going of school children or absence of this part of the family at the luncheon hour. The hastening away in the morning without time or care to appreciate a well prepared breakfast is an equal source of evil, but this lies in the hands of the home-maker alone to control.

Perhaps in this, as well as in other much talked of school reforms, the parents are chiefly to blame for not asking the assistance of school boards in this important matter. It is highly probable that if the subject of school lunches were brought practically to the notice of those in authority, something effective and systematic would be done. A request, even from each parent interested, sent directly to the central authorities, might work wonderful changes.

Every Day Etiquette

"What is the proper way to word an announcement card when only the mother of the bride is living?" queried Madge.

"The card may read thus," said her aunt. "Mrs. Charles Horace Doan has the honor of announcing the marriage of her daughter Frances to Mr. Harry L. Frank on Thursday, February, the third, nineteen hundred and one at St. Margaret's Chapel."

OLD AND NEW WAY TO TREAT CATARRH

Breathing a Germ Killing Air Endorsed By Actual Results.

The discovery of Hyomei has wrought a wonderful change in the treatment of catarrh.

Prior to three years ago the medicines ordinarily employed in the cure of this disease were drugs, sprays, lotions, etc. In some instances they benefited, but the improvement was not lasting.

With Hyomei you take into the air passages of your throat and head a balsamic air that goes into the mucous cells, and should effectually kill all germs and microbes of catarrh. Its purpose is to enter the blood with the oxygen, killing the germs in the blood, and restore health to the whole system. Many astonishing testimonials have been received from those who have been helped by Hyomei.

A complete outfit is inexpensive and includes an inhaler, dropper and sufficient Hyomei for several weeks' treatment.

Perhaps the strongest evidence that can be given to doubters, is the fact that T. J. Evans has so much faith in Hyomei that he sells every package under a positive guarantee to refund the money if it does not relieve.

Now is the time to begin the use of Hyomei and rid yourself of this serious and oftentimes dangerous disease. Nothing is gained by waiting till the vicious microbes of catarrh have made still further inroads on your health.

BATTLE WITH COPPER-HEAD NORTH OF TOWN

M. J. Reese, the well-known insurance agent, with offices in the Trust building, had a battle with a copperhead snake Sunday afternoon and for a time the reptile put up a fight which caused Mr. Reese much exertion. The insurance man, with his wife and a party of friends, was enjoying a ride through the wilds of northern Licking county, when he observed the poisonous reptile sunning itself. If there is anything in the world that Mr. Reese dislikes more than a snake, it is another snake, and so, arming himself with the only available weapon close at hand, an auto wrench, he stepped from the machine, bidding the ladies not to fear, as he would soon put the enemy hors de combat. But he reckoned without his host, for the snake coiled and was ready for the spring, when the wrench was hurled through the air. The aim was true and struck the reptile amidship, causing it to give a wriggle or two, when it turned over on its side, or at least it turned over, and expired. The snake by actual measurement was 31 inches in length, and its girth was as big as a man's wrist. It was a lucky throw for Mr. Reese for if he had not hit the snake, he would have had to shin up a telephone pole and it might have kept him there for several hours—the snake, not the pole. M. J. claims that when a boy he could put three straight strikes over the plate every time and he still retains his accuracy and his throwing arm.

Bicycles Stolen.

Bicycles belonging to George Higgins of North Avenue and Donald Church of North Fourth street, were stolen Sunday night from Plymouth Congregational church. The police are investigating.

Close Their Cottages.

There were quite a few people at the lake Sunday, most of them residents of Columbus, who were there for the purpose of packing their belongings and closing their cottages for the season. A number of people also took advantage of the fine day and spent a part of it on the water with hook and line, several excellent catches being reported.

Granville Car Off Track.

The Granville car split a switch at corner of West Main and Eleventh streets Sunday. The occupants were slightly shaken up, the car was delayed and a slight damage resulted to the car.

Called To Vermont.

Dr. A. L. Bell yesterday for his home in Vermont, where he was called by the death of his mother, Mrs. John Best.

Miss Fulton in Concert.

Miss Zoe Fulton will appear in concert with Ernest Schelling, the noted pianist, at Mansfield, on Thursday evening of this week, and will be in Newark on Friday and Saturday. Mr. Carl Bernhardt of Pittsburgh, who has played accompaniment several times in Newark for Miss Fulton, will appear here with Evan Williams on the 23d.

Louis C. Beckman, proprietor of the Columbia hotel in South Fourth street, was removed to the Newark Sanitarium late yesterday afternoon in the Bradley ambulance, and today underwent an operation by Drs. C. J. Dillon and W. E. Bover.

Will Deliver Address.

Ed. L. ("Piney") Parker, of Mt. Vernon, secretary of the Ohio Retail Shoe Dealers' Association, and Democratic candidate for reelection to the office of city auditor of Mt. Vernon, called on his numerous friends in this city today. Mr. Parker was on his way to Coshocton and will go from there to Pittsburgh where he will deliver an address at a banquet of shoe men tomorrow at the Duquesne hotel, and the day following they will all be entertained at a big clam bake at Schnley park.

Lancaster Fair.

The Lancaster fair opens today and quite a number of local people will drive down the next three days to witness the races. It is said that there are quite a number of fast steppers at the track and that all entries in the county exhibition are full to overflowing.

Attend State Meeting.

McNamara, a director, left this afternoon for Lima, O., to attend a two days' meeting of the Ohio Building Association League. Mr. Broome is on one of the important committees and will deliver his report Thursday morning.

Ventilation.

Changing of the air in a room once or twice a day is not sufficient. Ventilating a room while it is not occupied is not sufficient either. Two or three occupants of a closed room will vitiate the air in it in a few minutes. Ventilation should be most active while a room is occupied by people.

An Important Consideration.

"Poverty," said Mr. Dustin Stax, "is no disgrace." "No," replied Mr. Growcher. "Poverty is like wealth in one way. The amount of respect attached to it depends entirely on how you came by it."—Washington Star.

Exceptions.

"A soft answer turns away wrath." "Don't you believe it. My wife asked me yesterday how I liked her biscuits, and I said they were mush."—Baltimore American.

Follow One Another.

Things always bring with them their own philosophy—that is, prudence. No man acquires property without acquiring with it also a little arithmetic.—Emerson.

Good and Sufficient Reason.

Editor—But, my good fellow, why do you bring this poem to me? Impudent One—Well, sir, because I hadn't a stamp, sir.—London Tatler.

Webster's Worthless Area:

Daniel Webster was surely a great orator when he uttered the peroration of his reply to Hayne, and a great statesman when he formulated the Ashburton treaty, but he failed as a prophet when in the United States senate he denounced a proposition to establish a mail route from Independence, Mo., to the mouth of the Columbia river. "What," said the godlike Daniel, "do we want with this worthless area? This region of savages and wild beasts, of deserts, of shifting sands and whirlwinds of dust, of cactus and prairie dogs? To what use could we ever hope to put these great deserts, or those endless mountain ranges, impenetrable and covered to their very base with eternal snow? What can we ever hope to do with the western coast, a coast of 3,000 miles, rock bound, cheerless, uninviting and not a harbor on it. Mr. President, I will never vote one cent from the public treasury to place the Pacific coast one inch nearer to Boston than it now is."—Exchange.

East Indian Traders.

The native of India is a keen trader, none too scrupulous, and does business on a small margin. It is said that he retails goods so close that his profit is made by selling the packing box. Natives become landlords by the purchase of a piano shipping case. This would be divided into two compartments by a board. The lower section would be rented for a few cents a month to a silversmith; the upper leased to a dhurle or native shirt maker, while on top a cap merchant displayed his wares.

Locomes are so small that the individual who owns a "bubble bubble" or water pipe has several rubber tubes connected with it, and for a "piece," one-sixteenth of a cent, allows patrons to have one puff. I mention these facts to give a real glimpse of conditions. Despite this, I know this market is worthy of our best efforts.—W. E. Aughinbaugh in Leslie's.

Greased the Wheels.

Some years ago an American business man, wishing to get freight through a Russian port, approached the government agent with a request for expedition. He was told delivery might be made in some weeks. The American protested that he must have those goods immediately.

"Have a cigar," said the Russian official, pushing a box toward the American and leaving the room. The American opened the box, found it empty and dropped in fifty rubles. The Russian came back, looked at the box, pushed it toward the visitor and, as he again left the room, remarked, "Have another cigar."

The American dropped fifty more rubles in the box. The Russian official returned, looked at the cigar box and politely remarked, "Your goods will be delivered tomorrow, sir."—Wall Street Journal.

A Famous Statue.

The great temple of Zeus Olympius at Olympia, Greece, was 354 feet long and 171 wide. The columns of this famous shrine were sixty feet in height and six and a half feet in diameter and are the largest which now remain of ancient architecture in marble. Sixteen of the wonderful columns are still standing and are among the most imposing in the world. In this temple stood the colossal statue of Zeus, forty feet high, on a pedestal of twenty.

This statue was the masterpiece of Phidias, the world's greatest artist, and so famous was it that it was considered a calamity to die without seeing it. The immortal work was removed to Constantinople by Theodosius I, and was destroyed by fire in the year 475 A. D.

Blackwell's Island.

The price of Blackwell's island when it was purchased by New York city was $50,000, paid to Robert Blackwell, the owner, who had married the daughter of the English captain Manning, who in 1673 surrendered New York city to the Dutch. When the English resumed control Manning retired to Blackwell's island, then known as Hog island, and after his death it became the property of his daughter and son-in-law. It was sold in 1833 to New York city and since has been in use for various correctional and charitable institutions.

The Woman Pays.

A woman's answer to The Vampire. Verses by Felicia Blake with apologies to Kipling. A fool there was, and she lowered her pride. (Even as you and I?) To a bunch of conceit in a masculine name. We saw the faults that could not be denied. But the fool saw only his manly side. (Even as you and I?) Oh, the love she laid on her own heart's knife. With the care of her head and hand belongs to the man who did not know (And how she knows that he never could know) And did not understand.

Eminent Men Attending Meeting of Ohio Synod Of Presbyterian Church

The biennial of the Presbyterian church in Ohio, which is being held in the entire atmosphere of the annual synod of Ohio of the Presbyterian church of Ohio, was a pre-synodical conference, which prefaces the work to be done during the three days of the synod.
 The conference opened with a song service of fifteen minutes by the choir of the church.
 During the devotional service which followed, Rev. Don Fuller, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, gave a series of eight prayers and the congregation joined in them.
 The first prayer was by Rev. Charles L. Zornow, D. D., of Cleveland, who spoke briefly on the prevalence of the church and its work in Ohio. He said that the church in Ohio was doing very much for the people, and that the church was the only power in the state which was not for the sake of the few, but for the sake of the many.

in which I could concentrate and work out my ideas. Now I am going to find one man in each of the 88 counties of Ohio to do the work of developing the resources. I am tired of committees. One man will know his responsibilities and not be depending on some one else. Personal work only will develop the church.
 Dr. White concluded his address with a short prayer.
 Devotionals opened the formal session of the Ohio Synod of the Presbyterian church of Ohio, at this morning's session and the first speaker on the program was Rev. Robert E. Pugh, of Columbus, synodical superintendent of Home Missions.
 Rev. Mr. Pugh is a former Newark man, being a son of Mrs. Ella Pugh of Cedar street and a graduate of Newark High school in the class of 1892.
 Banners adorned the front of the church bearing statistics showing the churches, the girls and the averages as to states and Mr. Pugh used these to illustrate his talk.
 In foreign missions Ohio stands eleventh with 40 per cent. Ohio equals tenth in home missions with 15 per cent.
 Rev. M. Pugh talked on the "Ohio Situation" and the figures given by him were from the minutes of the 10 synods in the United States.
 In the average for five years on the additions to the church by professions Ohio stands sixth with 6.34, which is just above the average in the whole church.
 In 1915 in the whole church in home missions Ohio stands 14th. The average Presbyterian church in the United States has 151 members and 137 Sunday school scholars. In Ohio the average Presbyterian church has 202 members and 167 Sunday school scholars. The situation has been surprising in the percentage of membership.
 Rev. David McConaghey of New York, representative of the general assembly on the "National Situation," spoke on the "National Situation." The executive committee has withdrawn from the church board with the exception of the moderator and representatives from each of the nine boards of the church are now working in harmony in the every-member plan.
 Of 10,000 churches there are only all told 3,885 with a membership of over 100 and 223 with 50 members. Reply cards were sent to these and the membership of 13,538 on the assembly's plan for maintenance of benevolences has been increased to 25,590.
 "We have pushed the financial situation too much, too long have we put the cart before the horse. You cannot gather the sheaves before you sow. We need to awaken the intellectual interest of our people in the direction of their life.

 "We will now leave the national question and take up Ohio. The every member plan is to get every member to give in worship, in support of all the work according to subscription made by each member in each year's campaign. Of the 652 churches in Ohio, there are 359 on the membership plan.
 In missionary benevolences, there has been an increase of $76,000 and in church support $86,000 for the year past.
 Dr. C. L. Zarbough as chairman appointed a committee on resolutions to make a report at the close of this afternoon on the features to be considered and how to handle the Presbyterian situation.
 He named Mr. C. H. Parsons of Toledo, chairman of the committee; Mr. M. L. Milligan, of Springfield; Rev. Alexander McGuffin, D. D., of Cleveland; Rev. G. M. Rourke, D. D., of Springfield and the moderator Rev. David H. Johnston, of Toledo.
 At 10:30 the sectional conferences were held, the department of Sabbath school in the First church Auditorium. Young People's work in the First church Sunday school room. Brotherhood in the First church dining room and Evangelism and Home Missions in the Second church auditorium. These conferences continued until 3 o'clock this afternoon when the general conference will convene and an address will be delivered by Rev. Moses Breese, D. D., of New York.
